THREE CHEERS FOR OUR VOLUNTEERS!

More than 300 community-spirited volunteers!
It couldn't happen without you!

- ◆ Jason Aubee/Sweet Waves for space for our headquarters. And Sandy Wycoff for helping us find this year's HQ.
- ◆ Chatham's beautiful churches: First Congregational Church, First United Methodist Church, St. Christopher's Episcopal Church, Unitarian Universalist Meeting House, and Holy Redeemer Church. And our other fantastic venues: Eldredge Public Library, St. Martin's Lodge, Chatham Bars Inn's Monomoy Hall, Monomoy Schools, Town Hall, Chatham Orpheum Theater, Atwood House Museum, and Chatham Community Center for allowing us to celebrate in their warm, welcoming spaces!
- ◆ Chatham Fire Department for the use of Tower Ladder 189 to hoist our photographer high above the Town Photo & Brandon DeTraglia for taking the Town Photo! And thanks to CVS for speedy printing of the photo and a donation from the Town Photo proceeds.
- ◆ Lawrence-Lynch Materials corp. for portable lighting around town.
- ◆ New England Pizza for a generous donation of pizza for "Just for TEENS"! And Stop & Shop and Chatham Village Market for snacks.
- ◆ Chatham Light Liquors and Chatham Candy Manor for donating a great variety of beverages & snacks to our volunteer Thank-You party.
- ◆ Roger Ling for his electrical assistance everywhere.
- ◆ Stage Harbor Marine for help with sails, logistics and project space.
- ◆ ClickCapeCod.Com for the countdown clock; Baxter Crane & Rigging for the countdown-crane.
- ◆ Chatham Village Market and Dunkin' Donuts for volunteer refreshments.
- ◆ Chatham Candy Manor for candy rewards at the Family Fun Center
- ◆ Litchfield & Litchfield for always being on call for legal advice.
- ◆ Bill Marsh / Eastward Homes for storage space.
- ◆ Cape Cod Five for use of the property
- ◆ Police Lt. Mike Anderson, Deputy Fire Chief Peter Connick, and all the men and women of our local police and fire departments who keep First Night safe and orderly with smiles and good will.
- ◆ Dan Tobin & Bob Rooney and their staffs, Terry Whelan, and other town workers for all their help. And Steve Litwinowich and his staff for managing the school venues.
- ◆ Chatham & Brewster Girl Scouts and volunteers for face painting fun!
- ◆ Noah Pelty for his Carnival Caper King Tut; John Whelan, Bill Bystrom and the road race crew; Richard Costello and the Squire crew for the fun run and a generous donation.
- ◆ Our Friends in the Media: Cape Cod Chronicle, Cape Cod Times, Cape Codder, Cape Cod Broadcasting, iHeart Media, Chatham Today, Chatham Visitor's Guide and Channel 18 for their photographic and video coverage.
- ◆ Our Button Vendors and their employees: Chatham Clothing Bar, Where the Sidewalk Ends Bookstore, Cape Cod Five, Larry's PX, South Chatham Liquors, Chatham Light Liquors, Puritan Clothing and Snow's of Orleans.
- ◆ The Wayside Inn, First United Methodist Church, and the Creative Arts Center for hosting and supporting committee and volunteer special events.
